SOUTH INDIA – THE LAND OF TEMPLES

A 18 night spiritual journey covering many of South India's most sacred temples beginning with a visit to Sai Baba Ashram in Whitefields, just outside of Bangalore, then to Thirupati and onto the many other famous temples in Kanchipuram, Thanjavur, Madurai, Rameshwaram including the Shiva temples near Etumanoor and of course Guruvayoor Temple.

Day 01 – Bangalore

On arrival, you will be met by our meet & greet service and transferred to your Hotel. Rest of the day to explore this garden city. Overnight at the Hotel.

Bangalore is the capital of Karnataka and best known internationally as an IT hub that rivals Silicone Valley. It is easy to see why it is the favourite of the Tecchies with its salubrious climate, its tree-lined avenues and its trendy downtown. A city of striking contrasts. Bangalore today is Asia's fastest growing cosmopolitan city. The Vidhan Soudha is a major attraction which presently functions as the state legislative assembly and a marvelous example of Neo-Dravidian architecture.

Day 02 – Bangalore

Full day for exploring this wonderful cosmopolitan city. Overnight at the hotel.

The Cubbon Park in the heart of the city, Lal Bagh (famous for the blooming red roses), and the Bangalore Palace are some of the other must see attractions of this garden city. The Tipu's Palace and the adjoining fort are fine examples of Indo-Islamic architecture that also offer a glimpse into the Mughal lifestyle of the day. Besides, one can also visit the Aquarium, which is the second largest in the country.

Day 03 – Bangalore-Puttaparthi

After breakfast drive to Puttaparthi. On arrival, check in at the Hotel. Later visit Ashram. Overnight at the Hotel.

Sai Baba or 'Bhagawan' as he is known to followers explains the scriptures of the world in simple and easily comprehensible terms that can be grasped and practiced by anyone irrespective of age, gender, faith and nationality. Ever since He declared His Divine Identity and Mission at the tender age of 14, Bhagawan has tirelessly been engaged in teaching and transforming humanity. Though Bhagawan's teachings are primarily concerned with spirituality, it also extends to other spheres of human knowledge and activity. These teachings of Bhagawan, primarily in the form of His Divine Discourses delivered to varied groups of audiences in various places over the past several decades since 1953, have been compiled in several volumes of 'Sathya Sai Speaks'. Apart from this, Bhagawan had also written series of articles for the magazine 'Sanathana Sarathi' that were compiled and published as the 'Vahini' series. The undercurrent of all of Bhagawan's teachings is the principle of love. He has often stated that the essence of all His teachings is contained in the simple yet powerful canons – "Love All, Serve All. Help Ever, Hurt Never".
